Rebranding Urdang to CenterSquare

CenterSquare Investment Management is a real asset investment subsidiary of the Bank of New York Mellon Corporation. The firm provides real asset investment management services to institutional investors through private equity investments, real estate securities, infrastructure securities, and real estate debt investments. CenterSquare Investment Management was founded in 1987 and is based in Plymouth Meeting, Pennsylvania with additional offices in New York and Los Angeles and affiliates in London and Singapore*. Focused exclusively on real estate, our investment approach includes top-down market/country selection and bottom-up underwriting of properties, companies, and management teams. Our clients include corporate, public and Taft-Hartley plan sponsors, endowments and foundations, financial institutions, and high net worth individuals.

Mr Urdang established the firm as “Urdang”. BNY Mellon bought the company, but kept the name Urdang until Mr Urdang retired. Jonathan Harbourne won the pitch to rebrand it (against Allison Mitchell), and renamed and rebranded it “CenterSquare Investment Management”.

Jonathan worked directly with one employee of the firm. Jonathan single-handedly designed every part of the new branding – from logo and colours, printed and publicity material and website. The website was built by BNY Mellon’s in-house web team.

Blackfriars Asset Management

NEW COMPANY

The original name for Blackfriars Asset Management was going to be 'Helical Capital'. The logo had been designed and agreed upon –but just 9 days before the press conference there was an issue with registering the name, and it had to be changed. In 24 hours I came up with the logo for Blackfriars Asset Management.

The logo – a bishop chess piece, signified the 'Black Friar' of the location and name and the strategic nature of the company.
